

so in fact, [redacted] was deciding what she wanted to do, not what she was suppose to be doing. [redacted] said she had a bad attitude. when I spoke with [redacted] she said she really did want to go back to 'A' Squad. I asked [redacted] to give [redacted] another shot. He has agreed, to give her a two week trial. I have to phone him in 2 weeks. [redacted] said she was to embarrassed to say anything to [redacted] and afraid of what we'd say. I told her that in future when situations occur that she can't control she has to come and talk to us. Work to bed very relaxed and happy. Settled well.

[redacted] Back 3:30 pm. [redacted] dropped him off. He may be fishing tomorrow. (I'll believe it when I see it) asked him about his Probation officer says he is still off sick. [redacted] told me he's very worried about Tuesday. There wasn't alot I could say to make him feel better. [redacted] came around at 6:30 pm. Beth stayed in watching T.V till 8:30 pm. [redacted] was back 9:30 pm. Made Supper and a drink for me. went to bed 10 pm.

Friday 15th May.

[redacted] awake 7:30 am. Had a Shower. Emptied the dishwasher with my help. Cereal + Toast for breakfast. We did his reading again this morning. Fed fluff. watched a couple of cartoons. went off to school in good form. [redacted] woke him at 7:30 am. Lay in till 7:50 am. Had a good breakfast Played on the Computer. went off to school happy and relaxed.
