Date 9th April, 1979

This morning [REDACTED] 'phoned to say that on Saturday whilst her mother was out shopping and she was at home, Mr. [REDACTED] arrived at the home driven by his lodger, and was banging on the door, shouting through the letter box and throwing lit cigarettes into the house.

A little later Mrs. [REDACTED] 'phoned and said more or less the same thing as [REDACTED] did adding that they are living in fear of Mr. [REDACTED] and that he might break the door down. She also said that all this is quite intolerable and wondered if something could be done about it.
