You won't be reviewing them. Some UK lawyer who knows nothing about the law in Jersey will!! It's a daunting task and I don't for one minute think that anyone sensible has properly thought through what it will involve. I'm not worried. By the time, the Committee reports, I'll be long retired!!

You had best keep your kayak primed for a quick getaway...

What about the terms of reference for public enquiry? Please tell me that we won't be reviewing the decisions to prosecute !!!

Hi John

I have spoken to Mr Gull and it is th [REDACTED] case he is talking about. Dep Higgins came to see him in August and blew a lot of hot air . The only concession Mr Gull gave was that if there were any new complaints to investigate we would. We have not heard from him since.

Dear Alison

Can you help with this? Do we know which case it is? Is it true?
