Re:

Dear Crown Advocate Belhomme

Re: H M ATTORNEY GENERAL -v- [REDACTED]
 Royal Court, Inferior Number - Sentencing - [REDACTED]

Thank you for sight of your draft Summary of Facts in the above connection received yesterday, 8th March 2004. Having now taken our client's instructions I have the following comments:

(i) On a general point [REDACTED] informs me that D I Bonney has told him [REDACTED] will be charged at the end of March.

(ii) Paragraph 7.

Whilst I accept that this is an accurate account of the evidence given by [REDACTED] it is uncorroborated and disputed by our client both as to the length of [REDACTED] involvement with Haut de la Garenne and his assertion that he always took out more than one child.

Might I suggest the paragraph be amended along the following lines:

"At sometime around 1960 Mr X became a [REDACTED] at Haut de la Garenne. He went to the Home about once every two weeks. The arrangement was informal. Initially Mr X would simply sit and talk with the children as they ate their dinner but later he took children out on outings in his car to the beach or to the cinema and thereafter for something to eat."

(iii) Paragraphs 11 - 19.
