Boys and girls over compulsory school-age are welcome to stay here either as school pupils or working people providing they accept and conform to our regime which must, of necessity, be geared to cater for and protect the interests of the majority, i.e. children of school-age and under. Where young people can't or won't conform, I will always give due warning and request help in onward placement, although I am mindful of the present difficulties of the St. Helier environment and the lack of other facilities.

Please let me have your observations and do indicate where you agree or disagree with my interpretation of the situation.

J. Thomson
Superintendent
