I have just had Alison's out of office reply hence this e-mail to you all!

Can anyone help? Sometimes I can remember what colour file I am looking for but in this case I can't!

Alison

Do you have any idea what colour ringbinder/file the papers were in? Sounds like a strange question, I know, but they can't find the file and have asked for a description of it! They know they have had it because it has been given one of their reference numbers but it seems to have disappeared. They are looking for it but said it might be helpful if they knew the colour of the file. It may be that the AG has asked someone to have a look at it and it will come to light when they receive the e-mail which is being sent round! Sorry about this!

According to our records the file re the above-named is still with the AG. I have sent his PA, [REDACTED] an urgent e-mail chasing progress and will get back to you as soon as I have heard from her.
